"When Mr. Wilcox. president of the First National Bank, said that some of our bills of lading were irregular I told him I would investigate, not having the slightest doubt of their being good. I called in Hindes and said: 'Harry what of the Jemocrats in this the Sixty-second Congress, and upon that record we can win not only next year but for years to come."

Thus spoke Champ Clark. Speaker of the House of Representatives, to-day in addressing the Democratic Congressional convention which had met to nominate a successor to the late Judge E. H. Madison called in Hindes and said: 'Harry, what of the Seventh district. George Neeley, a lawyer of Hutchinson, had no opposition of the nomination.

The Beer That Satisfies

Our Ruppiner, a smooth tasting dark beer, made from specially selected materials with a pronounced Bavarian malt-flavor, is not excelled by any dark beer anywhere. Our Metropolitan beer, also dark, not too heavy, has a medium malt-flavor and pleasing taste. Ruppert's Extra, a medium light beer of the Bohemian quality and taste, is as good as can be produced for the money. Ruppert's KNICKERBOCKER, "The Beer

That Satisfies," is made from the very best imported materials, has a rich hop-flavor and most lasting quality, is equal in every respect to the famous imported Pilsener. It has become the choice beverage of hundreds of thousands and the one prize beer of America. All our bottled goods are delivered to homes, hotels and cafes in steel cases, which protect the beer from sunlight exposure. For sale by dealers everywhere and on
